

FTI Consulting Strengthens Operational Transformation Practice with the Appointment of Adam Bradley as Senior Managing Director

July 11, 2017

LONDON, July 11, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE:FCN) today announced the appointment of Adam Bradley as a Senior Managing Director in the firm's Operational Transformation practice within the Corporate Finance & Restructuring segment. He will be based in London.

Mr Bradley will help accelerate the growth of FTI Consulting's Operational Transformation capabilities in Europe and further expand its services to the private equity sector. He has more than 20 years of consulting experience and focuses on shaping and delivering large, complex and urgent business transformation and profit improvement programmes for private equity-backed businesses. He has extensive experience across multiple industries, in particular healthcare and life sciences, telecommunications, media and technology, infrastructure and business services.

Kevin Hewitt, Chairman of the Europe, Middle East and Africa region at FTI Consulting, said, "Adam's extensive, hands-on experience will be of significant value as we continue to expand our European offering and help our private equity clients create value across the investment lifecycle. I am delighted to welcome him to the team."

Mr Bradley joins FTI Consulting from Alvarez & Marsal, where he was a Partner in the Private Equity Performance Improvement practice. Previous consulting experience includes positions with Accenture and Arthur D Little. Mr Bradley also practiced as a restructuring lawyer with Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer. He has an M.Sc. in Economics from the University of York and completed the Advanced Business Management Programme at the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.
