Glenn Tobias, who has been with FTI Consulting for more than eight years and has been instrumental in building the FTI Capital Advisors business, has been named Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of FTI Capital Advisors. He assumes the role from Carlyn Taylor, who becomes Chairperson of FTI Capital Advisors after more than 10 years as CEO.

In addition, Asher Cohen, Peter Gray and James McLain have joined FTI Capital Advisors as Managing Directors. Mr. Cohen joins after 12 years with Houlihan Lokey, Inc. and will focus on developing investment banking deal flow in the telecommunications, media and technology ("TMT") industry, working closely with FTI Consulting's TMT industry practice. Mr. Gray joins from Gerald Metals and will focus on driving mergers and acquisitions ("M&A") and capital markets activities for mining companies and their investors and stakeholders in FTI Consulting's Global Mining Advisory Practice. Mr. McLain joins from Coker Capital Advisors and will focus on providing investment banking advisory services to clients of FTI Consulting's Health Solutions practice, middle-market healthcare companies and private equity investors.

"I am excited to take on the role of CEO of FTI Capital Advisors," Mr. Tobias said. "Working with Carlyn, we have built a strong foundation at FTI Capital Advisors over the past several years, which is evident in the success we experienced in 2016, partnering with subject-matter experts from across FTI Consulting to close a number of significant transactions in multiple industries. I look forward to continuing to work with Carlyn, and the additions of Asher, Peter and James build on our strategy of providing investment banking solutions in both our strong industry practices as well as in distressed and stressed middle-market M&A."

Ms. Taylor, who also is Global Co-Leader of the Corporate Finance & Restructuring segment at FTI Consulting and the firm's Industry Initiative Leader, added, "C-suite relationships along with functional and industry knowledge are critical to a transaction's outcome. I congratulate Glenn on his new role and welcome Asher, Peter and James to the team."
