

FTI Consulting Appoints Brian Flynn as Senior Managing Director in the Health Solutions Practice

January 14, 2019

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE: FCN) today announced the appointment of Brian Flynn as a Senior Managing Director in the Health Solutions practice. He will be based in Boston.

For nearly 25 years, Mr. Flynn has provided operational, financial and strategic advisory services to healthcare providers. At FTI Consulting, he will focus on operational transformation services.

"We are excited to have Brian rejoin our Health Solutions practice," said Charles Overstreet, Global Leader of the Health Solutions practice at FTI Consulting. "He will be a key member of the team focused on operational excellence and performance improvement, working with FTI Consulting experts across the globe to provide business transformation services to our healthcare clients."

Mr. Flynn rejoins FTI Consulting from T2A Health Solutions LLC, which he founded. He has extensive experience in margin improvement for health providers and operators. He has spent much of his career implementing solutions in the revenue cycle, labor/productivity/process, supply chain, perioperative services, clinical effectiveness, clinical documentation and physician practice operations areas. He also has experience overseeing all components of the revenue cycle, including patient access and registration, patient financial services, health information management, clinical documentation, denials management and case management.

Commenting on his appointment, Mr. Flynn said, "I am looking forward to rejoining FTI Consulting's Health Solutions practice. The depth and breadth of FTI Consulting's platform globally and the diversity of the firm's offerings allow us to bring holistic operational transformation services to health providers and operators and have a meaningful impact on the industry."

In addition to his advisory experience, including serving as a Partner at EY, Mr. Flynn also served as Corporate Vice President of Revenue Cycle Operations at Continuum Health Partners in New York. In this role, he was responsible for managing the revenue cycle processes for Continuum hospitals, which had approximately 2,500 beds and revenues of more than $2 billion.
