

FTI Consulting's Morgan Magionos Named to Global Investigations Review's Leading Women in Investigations 2021 Guide

May 25, 2021

WASHINGTON, May 25, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE: FCN) today announced that Morgan Magionos, a Managing Director in the firm's Forensic and Litigation Consulting segment, has been recognized in Global Investigations Review's Women in Investigations 2021 guide, which highlights the top 100 female practitioners in the investigations space worldwide based on nominations from readers and industry peers.

"Morgan is among an inspiring group of professionals in the Women in Investigations guide," said Paul Ficca, Global Leader of the Forensic and Litigation Consulting segment at FTI Consulting. "She plays an integral role in helping clients who may face regulatory and compliance investigations or seek guidance on best practices to mitigate risk. I am pleased to congratulate Morgan on this well-deserved accomplishment."

Ms. Magionos has over 15 years of forensic accounting and investigative experience. She primarily focuses on anti-corruption and anti-money laundering matters, as well as a variety of securities, investment and other financial fraud-related matters.

"It's an honor to be named to Global Investigations Review's Women in Investigations guide alongside so many remarkable women in the industry," Ms. Magionos said. "I hope that the recognition of all my talented colleagues from around the world will inspire the next generation of women in investigations to commit to growth and curiosity in the field and beyond."
