Partnership Bolsters Analytics Capabilities to Address Complex Legal, Investigative and Regulatory Matters

WASHINGTON, March 10, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE: FCN) today announced that the Technology segment has added Reveal, the global provider of the leading AI-powered e-discovery platform, to its bench of software partners. The partnership will strengthen FTI Technology's early case assessment, AI and advanced analytics offerings, enabling fast access to insights supporting litigation, investigations, compliance, antitrust, data privacy matters and more.

"The scope, scale and complexity of data volumes are rising quickly," said Daryl Teshima, a Senior Managing Director within the Technology segment at FTI Consulting. "This is placing a greater emphasis on utilizing AI and analytics to reduce datasets efficiently and defensibly and uncover important facts quickly. Reveal's strong AI and analytics features will only amplify our robust analytics tech stack, providing our team with a broad range of advanced capabilities to create discovery workflows that can stand up to the current and emerging wave of data challenges."

This partnership announcement extends an existing relationship between FTI Technology and Brainspace, a leading analytics platform that was acquired by Reveal in 2020. FTI Technology provides clients with a selection of industry-leading and bespoke analytics and e-discovery solutions across a range of software platforms for early case assessments, document review, processing, Story Development, data subject access requests and other use cases. FTI Technology's expert team can reduce the cost of discovery and accelerate case strategy development by leveraging key capabilities within Reveal, including:

- Sentiment analysis
- Linguistic and emotional intelligence
- Contextual analysis
- Active learning
- Concept search
- Communications trends
- Visual analytics

"FTI Technology, now backed by a leading AI-powered platform for e-discovery, combines sophisticated solutions with experienced professionals to find innovative and defensible approaches to address today's challenging legal and regulatory matters," said Wendell Jisa, Founder and CEO of Reveal. "We are excited that this partnership will provide FTI Technology and its clients with more options to accelerate early case assessment, fact-finding and the discovery process."

FTI Technology solves data-related business challenges, with expertise in legal and regulatory matters.
