

FTI Consulting Appoints Brenda J. Bacon to Board of Directors

December 11, 2006

Baltimore, MD - December 11, 2006

FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE: FCN), the leading global consulting firm to organizations confronting the critical legal, financial and reputational issues that shape their futures, today announced that its Board of Directors appointed Brenda Bacon, an independent director, to fill the vacancy created as a result of the Board increasing the number of directors to ten from nine and the number of members of Class II of the Board to four from three. Ms. Bacon's term will expire at FTI's next annual meeting in Spring of 2007. Ms. Bacon will serve on the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Ms. Bacon, age 56, is President and CEO of Brandywine Senior Care, Inc., a company she co-founded in 1996, now named Brandywine Senior Living. Ms. Bacon became President and Chief Operating Officer in May 2003, and President and Chief Executive Officer in July 2004. From 1989 to 1993, Ms. Bacon served as Chief of Management and Planning, a cabinet-level position under New Jersey Governor James J. Florio, where she oversaw all health care and human services reform efforts and departments, and served as a senior advisor to the Governor. In addition, in 1993, Ms. Bacon spent several weeks in Washington on loan to the Presidential Transition Team for the transition of the Department of Health and Human Services where she participated in the confirmation preparation for Secretary Donna Shalala.

Commenting on Ms. Bacon's appointment, Jack Dunn, FTI's president and chief executive officer, said: "The Board is delighted to add Brenda as an independent director. Her many years of senior management experience in the healthcare industry, an industry focus of FTI, will be an invaluable benefit to the Board."
