

FTI Consulting, Inc. Launches FTI Journal

November 2, 2009

-Quarterly Publication to Provide FTI Consulting's Commentary on Business Issues and Events-

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 2 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- FTI Consulting, Inc. (NYSE: FCN), the global business advisory firm dedicated to helping organizations protect and enhance their enterprise value, today announced the launch of FTI Journal, a new quarterly publication of business commentary. By drawing upon the deep expertise and shared experience of more than 2,600 client-facing professionals in 26 countries, FTI Journal explores transformational business events and offers insights for business leaders and their advisers.

Commenting on the launch, Jack Dunn, FTI's President and Chief Executive Officer said, "FTI Journal differs from finance, legal or management journals in that it provides an interdisciplinary perspective on key issues and transformational events that impact companies across the globe. Our authors will dissect some of the most pressing and important business events of the day while providing practical commentary to help readers protect and enhance their companies' enterprise value."

In the inaugural issue, FTI Journal tackles a number of timely and critical issues to business, including:

- Challenges facing companies who may face the need to refinance mountainous debt obligations over the next five years.
- What next for the private equity industry?
- Efforts to cut U.S. healthcare costs.
- Successful business turnaround strategies.

- Potential impact of digital substitution - advertising spending moving online - on the recovery of the advertising industry.
