

FTI Technology Named to 100 Companies That Matter in Knowledge Management List by KMWorld Magazine

October 2, 2014

For Fourth Year, E-discovery Leader Recognized for Innovative Solutions to Meet Corporate Data Challenges

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- FTI Consulting, Inc., (NYSE: FCN), the global business advisory firm dedicated to helping organizations protect and enhance their enterprise value, today announced that for the fourth time, its FTI Technology segment has been named to KMWorld magazine's 100 Companies That Matter in Knowledge Management list. Knowledge management practitioners, theorists, analysts, vendors, customers and colleagues helped select the vendors that exhibited innovation and adaptability.

"We believe in the true value of discovery and delivery of the right information to the right people at the right time, and this list reveals the top organizations dedicated to that goal," said Hugh McKellar, KMWorld magazine's Editor-in-Chief. "FTI Technology defines the spirit of practical innovation by blending easy-to-use technology with a deep, unflinching commitment to customer success."

FTI Technology provides e-discovery software and services that help government agencies, corporations and the law firms that serve them. This includes:

- Ringtail® E-Discovery Software: Ringtail is an award-winning and easy-to-use e-discovery and document review platform. It combines flexibility, security and case management capabilities with innovative visual analytics and predictive coding features to help legal teams more quickly and accurately find and review documents.
- Managed Review: FTI Technology's managed review offering provides high-quality review attorneys using expert workflow and advanced technology, enabling legal teams to meet deadlines, stay within budget and seamlessly scale to handle any matter.
- Forensic Investigations: No matter the geography or scale of the investigation, or types of data involved, FTI Technology's forensic investigators can collect, process and review massive amounts of data quickly, and provide expert witness testimony to verify the results.

"We're honored to be recognized by KMWorld magazine for our thought leadership and continued innovation in addressing clients' biggest e-discovery and information governance challenges," said Seth Rierson, Senior Managing Director and Global Segment Leader of FTI Technology. "FTI Technology is committed to streamlining the entire e-discovery process and providing a single point of accountability and will continue to offer new innovations to help clients contain costs and increase efficiency."

Methodology

KMWorld Trend-Setting Products began in 2003. More than 650 offerings from vendors were assessed by the magazines' judging panel, which consists of editorial colleagues, analysts, system integrators, vendors themselves, line-of-business managers and users. All products selected demonstrate clearly identifiable technology breakthroughs that serve the vendors' full spectrum of constituencies, especially their customers.
