PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K cannot be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by March 1, 2007 without unreasonable effort or expense. The delay in filing the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K is caused by the additional time required to prepare additional financial information of the Company's subsidiaries, particularly with respect to FD International (Holdings) Limited and its subsidiaries, which were acquired in October 2006, in order to provide disclosure in the Company's financial statements regarding the non-guarantor and guarantor subsidiaries of the Company's 7 5/8% senior notes due 2013, 7 3/4% senior notes due 2016 and 3 3/4% convertible senior subordinated notes due 2012. This disclosure will have no impact on the financial results for the year ended December 31, 2006 and any other period reported by the Company in its earnings press release (and accompanying financial tables) issued on February 15, 2007 and furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on February 21, 2007. The Company intends to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K within the 15-day extension period.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Theodore I. Pincus	(410)	951-4800
<small>(Name)</small>	<small>(Area Code)</small>	<small>(Telephone Number)</small>

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company refers the reader to its Current Report on Form 8-K dated February 15, 2007 filed on February 21, 2007, which contains its Press Release issued February 15, 2007 announcing its preliminary results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2006 and is incorporated herein by reference.

This filing contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions, and entail various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Important factors known to the Company that could cause such material differences are identified and discussed from time to time in the Company's filings with the SEC. The Company undertakes no obligation to correct or update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You are advised, however, to consult any future disclosure the Company makes in future reports to the SEC.
